Vm eorum, quae publicè in Ecclesia cani solent, tertium Librum amicorum rogatu in lucem edere decrevissem, te potissimum S E R E N I S S I M E P R I N C E P S delegi, cui eum inscriberem, quasiq; consecrarem: nam cum multos annos Illustrissimo ac Reuerendissimo Cardinali felicitis recollectionis Hippolyto quanta potui veneratione ac diligentia inseruierim, incredibilem quandam obseruationem me amplissimo nomini Estensi debere non obscure cognosco. Quapropter & inde usq; ardebat animus studio declarandi aliquo testimonio summam meam in te obseruantiam: quod cum alia ratione facere me posse non viderem, hac quae à me summo studio elaborata erant, in tuo nomine publicum accipere volui: Te igitur etiam atque etiam oro, ut hoc meum munus, quantulumcunque est, prompto animo, iucundeq; accipias: neque. n. potentissimus Persarum rex Artoxerxes puram fluminis aquam rustici hominis manibus oblatam aut respuit, aut neglexit. Vale Serenissime Princeps, quem Deus Opt. Max. diu in terris saluum, incolumemq; conseruet.

Handwritten musical score on ten staves. The notation is in a historical style, featuring various note values (minims, crotchets, quavers) and rests. The ink is dark and the paper is aged. The score is written in a single system across the ten staves. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat. The notation includes many accidentals (sharps and flats) and some ligatures. The overall appearance is that of a manuscript from the 18th or 19th century.
